Won't You Listen Now

A D E A D E

Won't you listen now

gotta tell you how I feel

If you'd listen

you would see my love is real

I would talk about those feelings deep inside

I would tell you 'bout

my love that I can't hide

tonight

I'm sitting on a sofa

with a pencil in my hand

Writing down the things

I'd like to say

D

I wonder, should I call you to tell you what I feel

or maybe I should wait

another day, hey

Won't you listen now ... (repeat verse)

Take your time, boy

and listen what I say

Once you're mine, boy

you wouldn't want it any other way

So listen now ... (repeat verse)

I'm sitting on a sofa

with a pencil in my hand

Writing down the things

I'd like to say

I wonder, should I call you

to tell you what I feel

or maybe I should wait

another day, hey

Won't you listen now ... (repeat verse)

Won't you listen now?

I Don't Know Birds That Well

F Bb C

F F7

Here I sit, watching the sun

Bb Bbm F

As it slowly rises in the sky

F F7

The air is clear, the day has just begun

Bb Bbm F

Birds are singing as they're flying by

Bb C

I know, I don't know birds that well

F

But they always seem

F7 Bb

To sing about love

Bbm F

I really wish that they could tell

C

How it looks like

Bb C

How it looks like

From above

F F7

Here I go, I'm on my way

Bb Bbm F

I am searching for a song that makes me smile

F F7

The sun is high, the birds are out to play

Bb Bbm F

They are singing and I listen for a while

Bb C

Well I know, I don't know birds that well

F

But they always seem

F7 Bb

To sing in harmony

Bbm F

And it sounds to me as they would tell

C

What it feels like

Bb C

How it feels like

F

To be free

F F7

Now I sit, watching the moon

Bb Bbm F

And I think of all the love we try to hide

F F7

The nightingale sings its favorite tune

Bb Bbm F

It doesn't need to share our foolish pride

Bb C

Well I know, I don't know birds that well

F

But they always seem

F7 Bb

To sing about love

If we'd listen maybe they could tell

One More Time

(G) C7

There he stands, looking in my direction
Could it be that I've got his affection

Bb7

Could it be that he wants me to dance

C7

Then he gives me a sign

Yeah, yeah, that's my chance

F G C

Then he walks across the room

F G C

And my heart goes boom boom boom

G#

Now I don't know what to say

I better stop

And try it one more time

'Cause whatever I say hey hey
Doesn't seem to make sense

The Wide Wide Land

A
She's walking through her home town
Where she used to live
A long, long time ago
She's walking day by day
And seems to know exactly
Where she wants to go

D
She looks across the country
A
As if it's under her command

D
There's nothing to remember

A
There's nothing to pretend

E D A
The wide, wide land

E D A
The wide, wide land

A
Her words come in a language
That keeps changing
As the days are going by
But it doesn't really matter
'Cause she's talking
With a twinkle in her eye

D
She doesn't seem to worry
A
That no one else can understand

D
And when you see her laughing

A
You get to know her as a friend

E D A
The wide, wide land

E D A
The wide, wide land

A
She's losing all her memories
Of faces that she used to know so well
But still remembers all the melodies
Of good old songs
Whose names she cannot tell

D
She's singing with her eyes closed

A
And you can almost hear the band

D
If you could see her smiling

A
I think you'd know what she meant

When she said

E D A
The wide, wide land

E D A
The wide, wide land

D E A
The wide, wide land

Dm E A
The wide, wide land
